"I tried a natural herbal hair oil for 3 weeks — here's what happened"

So I've been struggling with hair fall for a while and decided to try HairAura, a local Pakistani herbal hair oil. After 3 weeks of use twice a week, I noticed significantly less hair fall in the shower. The oil smells amazing — very herbal and natural. Has anyone else tried natural hair oils? Would love to hear your experiences!

Content Optimization & A/B Testing

Underperforming Post: Post 1 (Brand Introduction)

Problem: Caption too long, no clear call to action

Improvement: Shorten caption, add a question at the end, use a brighter visual

A/B Test

Version A Caption: "HairAura — 100% Natural Herbal Hair Oil. Your hair deserves better. DM to order! #HairAura"

Version B Caption: "Tired of hair fall? 😩 HairAura is your answer. Natural. Pure. Effective. Comment 'INFO' to learn more! 👇"

Result: Version B performed better because it asks a question, uses emotion, and has a clear CTA (call to action).
